Return, Refund & Exchange Policy

Last Updated: 10 October 2026

At ISHAVARYA, we take care to pack every order safely and securely. Since our puja kits may include natural, consumable, perishable, and hygiene-sensitive items, we generally do not accept returns or exchanges for products that have been opened, used, tampered with, or damaged after delivery, subject to applicable consumer laws.

Minor variations in colour, fragrance, texture, size, packaging, or appearance of natural and handmade items are normal and will not ordinarily be considered defects.

1. Eligible Issues

If you receive any of the following, please contact us within 7 days of delivery:

- A damaged product
- An incorrect product
- A missing item
- A defective or expired product
- A product that materially differs from its description

2. How to Request a Return, Replacement, or Refund

To report an issue, contact us at ishavarya01@gmail.com or 7028795655.

Please provide:

- Your order number
- A clear description of the issue
- Clear photographs of the product and packaging
- An unboxing video, if available

Our team will review your request and may contact you for additional information if required.

3. Resolution of Eligible Requests

Once your request has been reviewed and verified, we may offer a replacement, exchange, refund, store credit, or another appropriate resolution, depending on the nature of the issue and product availability.

Exchanges are available only for eligible damaged, incorrect, defective, or missing products. Exchanges are not available for change-of-mind requests, subject to applicable law.

4. Refund Processing

Approved refunds will generally be processed to the original payment method within 5–10 business days after approval. The time taken for the amount to appear in your account may depend on your bank or payment provider.

Shipping, cash-on-delivery (COD), or other service charges may not be refundable unless the issue arose due to an error on our part or a refund is otherwise required by applicable law.

5. Important Conditions

Products that have been opened, used, tampered with, or damaged after delivery are generally not eligible for return or exchange, subject to applicable consumer laws.

Nothing in this policy is intended to limit any rights or remedies available to customers under applicable law.
